Dear Michael:

I am sorry to delay you in sending you images of the three Yemen coins which I promised long ago. My reason is that I have been delayed by virtue of a long recovery from my broken vertebra, which happened during my fall in March. It has been a very long recovery period because of my age, but I am lucky I wasn't killed.

The enclosed images are large and the half dinar is as big as the dinar in the images, but you will recognize it is out of proportion in size compared to the others. The more I look at these coins the more I appreciate the opportunity to acquire a few and the opportunity to give a great many to ANS.

My very best to you for the holiday and always.

Thrive,

Eric P. Newman
